INTRODUCTORY RITES: THE GLORIA

The Gloria is an ancient hymn that follows the Penitential Rite and Kyrie. It is an act of joyful praise to God the Father and to his Son, the Lamb of God.

The Gloria begins with the words sung by the angels announcing the birth of the Lord as told in the Gospel of Luke. Because it is a hymn, the Gloria should be sung rather than recited. It is part of Mass on all Sundays, with the exception of the Sundays of Advent and Lent. It is also sung during major celebrations of the Lord, the Blessed Mother, and some saints, and during other celebrations of special joy or solemnity.

As with some of our other prayers at Mass, the words of this hymn will be changing slightly when we begin using the new translation of the Roman Missal, in Advent of 2011. Below is the current text on the left, and on the right, the changes you will be hearing and singing with the new translation.

Present Text:

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you
thanks, we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ,
only Son of the Father,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

New Text:

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you, we adore you, we glorify
you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God,
almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ,
Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father, you take away the sins
of the world,
have mercy on us; you take away the sins
of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK

The young king Solomon knew, when God appeared to him in a dream, to ask for wisdom rather than riches or power. We also need to ask God for wisdom as to how best use the time, the talent, and the treasure he entrusts to us so we can fulfill all our other duties and still find the joy of obtaining the ultimate treasure, the Kingdom of God.

PLEASE SHARE YOUR BOUNTY

As our gardens grow, we may find it producing more than we need. Please bring your excess bounty to the church on weekends and place it on a table in the courtyard on the North side of the church. If there is produce you could use, feel free to take a portion home with you. Any produce that remains will be placed on the share table at the food bank on Mondays.

“SAVE THE DATE”-UNWRAP YOUR GIFTS

The date for the Called & Gifted Weekend to be offered through the Catherine of Siena Institute is September 16 & 17, 2011. This will be a time to recognize the gifts given to serve God in ways that will bring joy and true happiness. Learn how God calls you to bring his love to others. Watch for registration in upcoming bulletins.
